Special Newsletter – The Association Celebrated at NORTHEAST LINK Dinner, September 28, 2013

The NE Link dinner in Boxborough on Saturday, September 28, celebrated the founding of the Rotary Alumni Association of Greater New England (RAAGNE), the first worldwide electronic alumni association for Ambassadorial Scholars, Group Study Exchange participants, Peace Fellows and Supporting Rotary members.

The evening featured stimulating talks by Mike McGovern, former Vice President of Rotary International and Vice Chair of the Rotary Foundation, and Peter Kyle, Rotary District 7620 Governor, 2013-14, and Recipient, The Rotary Foundation Global Alumni Service to Humanity Award. Also present was Karen Swaim Babin, Chair Emeritus of NE Link, and several sitting District Governors and Past District Governors.

On the left, RAAGNE president Christopher Uschnig accepts the Association charter and congratulations from Mike McGovern. On the right Christopher extends his greetings and thanks to the many alumni and Rotarians at the dinner.
